

NOTES AMONG THE ACTORS.

SOME OF THEIR NEW EFFORTS TO BE ENTERTAINING.

Winners in the Vandewater-Anna Boyd's Wicked Era is an Abolitionist. The new play in other titles—Athletic Couple at Broadway Music Hall.

Watching the gymnastics of a specialist often leads to the belief that the showman's exercises are not the most difficult, but just what he himself deems the hardest is seldom revealed. When the audience includes a number of performers in similar lines, however, the gymnast is likely to disclose his preferences.

Henry Irving's revival of "Cymbeline" in London seems to be so successful that we are sure it is an old story here. In his repertoire when he next comes here we shall find "Cymbeline," "Romeo," has been dramatized by Elwyn A. Barron, and acted in Milwaukee by the Tabors and their company.

Charles Frohman under the title of "The Two Little Vagrants." It bears a general resemblance in manner to "The Two Orphans," and is replete with intensely dramatic matter.

Robert Downing has been in Washington in connection with the production of a play, "The Two Little Vagrants," which is a woman of business who develops feminine traits in love. Sol Smith Russell is using the name of his friend, Mr. Downing, in the play.

Double Golden Wedding. Bridesmaids and Best Men Celebrate with the Bride and Bridegroom. BRIDGEPORT, Sept. 23.—A double golden wedding was celebrated at the residence of William B. Hays on Lafayette street last night.

YOUNG GIRL A FIREBUG.

She Had a Story of Incendiarism and Month's Revenge in the Same Way.

ROCKVILLE CENTRAL, Sept. 23.—The desire for revenge made a firebug of twelve-year-old Carrie Eckert of this place. Carrie's father is dead. Her mother lives with her second husband at Baldwin.

Mr. F. H. SUTTON'S $3.35 DINNER. He Did Not Pay for It, So Was Locked Up—A Friend Paid His Fine.

The National Board of Underwriters has offered a reward of $250 for the arrest and conviction of the firebug responsible for the many other fires.

CATHOLIC YOUNG MEN. Senator Grace Tells Them of the Advantages of Church Societies.

At the second day's session of the annual convention of the Catholic Young Men's Association, which was held at the Hotel Hamilton yesterday, Charles A. Weber of Brooklyn reported for the Army and Navy Catholic Literature Committee that the committee had during the year distributed a large amount of reading matter, and thereby had accomplished much good.

MISS GRACE DICKINSON MISSING. Her Maid Has Been Missing for Some Time, and on Tuesday She Disappeared. The police of Brooklyn were yesterday looking for a young woman named Miss Grace Dickinson, who had disappeared from her home at 1341 Madison street on Tuesday morning.

STEVENSON'S NEW SCHEME.

THE PURCHASING AGENT GOT AHEAD OF THE EXPRESS COMPANY.

No Names on Any of His Packages and Clerk Downey Had to Accept Them All as One Bundle—Stevenson's Scheme for Carrying a Package of Goods in the Express Company.

At the meeting of the Sinking Fund Commission yesterday it was decided to exempt $20,000,000 of city stock and bonds from taxation so that when the next bond sale is made better prices may be secured.

DAILY KEPT FOUR POLICEMEN BUST. He Was in a Fighting Mood, but Was Finally Subdued.

Tramps Beat and Robbed Charles Smith and Set Fire to His House. DEPOSIT, N. Y., Sept. 23.—At 3 o'clock on Monday morning Charles Smith, a bachelor living alone on one of the streets of Deposit, was awakened by a knock at his door.

WIND-SMASHING THIEVES. They Are Now Doing Business Successfully in East Twenty-third Street. Window smashers like those who made life uncomfortable for police and merchants a year or so ago on Broadway, between Eighth and Fifteenth streets, have begun operations in East Twenty-third street in the neighborhood of the old City Hall.

KNIPPERS WANT PUBLICITY. Not Satisfied to Walk Unseen, Because They Want to Make Converts. The members of the Flatbush Knipp Cure Association are indignant over the restrictions contained in the privilege of walking barefoot in Prospect Park in Brooklyn.

PRINCETON COLLEGE OPENED.

President Patton, Teller of Congress, and the Coming Celebration.

PRINCETON, Sept. 23.—Princeton College was opened this afternoon, and recitations will be started to-morrow. The entering class numbers 265, and while it is larger than the freshman classes for the past two years it is considerably smaller than that of 1895.

TO EXEMPT CITY BONDS. An Estimated Issue of $20,000,000. At the meeting of the Sinking Fund Commission yesterday it was decided to exempt $20,000,000 of city stock and bonds from taxation so that when the next bond sale is made better prices may be secured.

LEFT HIM UNCONSCIOUS. Tramps Beat and Robbed Charles Smith and Set Fire to His House. DEPOSIT, N. Y., Sept. 23.—At 3 o'clock on Monday morning Charles Smith, a bachelor living alone on one of the streets of Deposit, was awakened by a knock at his door.

THEY ORGANIZE, NOT TO COMBAT THE PUBLIC, BUT TO ADVANCE THEIR OWN INTERESTS. About 130 book agents, doing business with various publishers, have been organized with the intention of establishing a regular rate for orders.

WANTED THE TRACK TO HIMSELF. Leonard Was Drunk and Told the Engineer to Go Away. Justice Noonday of the Coney Island Court yesterday sentenced Frank Leonard to a term of ten days in the Coney Island House of Correction.

NEW CHAIR IN THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY. DEPOSIT, Mich., Sept. 23.—The Convention of the German Catholic Central Association this morning decided to establish a chair in the Catholic University at Washington, to be known as the "Chair of St. Thomas Aquinas."

CAPT. O'BRIEN'S PILLORY.

SOPHIE LYONS REENTS BEING SUBJECTED TO IT.

She Makes Faces and Struggles While Re-enters Her Pillory—The Cause of Her Misadventure.

HAD NO POCKET IN HIS SHIRT. Stolen Money Couldn't Have Been Found There—Johnson Was Acquitted. Julius Johnson, a sailor on the American liner Paris, was tried in the General Sessions Court in Jersey City yesterday for larceny.

READING FORECLOSURE SALE. The Properties Bought by C. H. Coster for the Reorganization Committee. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 23.—The auction sale of properties of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad and Coal and Iron Companies, under the foreclosure of the general mortgage, and as directed by the United States Circuit Court, took place today.

NO COMMISSIONS ON SALES OF TICKETS. CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—At a meeting of the Western Passenger Association it was agreed that, commencing Oct. 1, 1896, all so-called ticket agencies with brokers or similar agencies shall be discontinued.

BOUGHT A PISTOL ON SUNDAY; FOUND DEAD IN THE WOODS ON MONDAY. PORT Jervis, Sept. 23.—George Fuller, 22 years of age, of Port Jervis, N. Y., was found dead Monday in Durand's Grove, just outside his home, with a bullet wound over his heart.

THE SHOOT THE CHUTES MUST MOVE. Mayor Strong, after consultation with the Dock Commissioners yesterday, advised the Board to withdraw the permit issued to Paul Boyton for his "Shoot the Chutes" at the foot of East 12th street.

FORMER CASHIER BUSH'S TRIAL.

D. C. Robinson's Overdraft on the Buffalo Bank.

BUFFALO, Sept. 23.—When the trial of former Cashier Bush was called in the Federal Court this afternoon Mr. Stanchfield recalled R. B. Delo, who, at the time the Elmsira Bank failed, was a bookkeeper employed there. He identified a number of checks which had been cashed by Bush, and also some of the bank's records.

Left in Control of the Murray Hill Bank's Assets. The motion of Miles M. O'Brien and Spencer Trask, receivers of the Murray Hill Bank, to turn over the control of the bank to them was denied yesterday by Justice Traux of the Supreme Court.

MINIATURE ALMANAC—THIS DAY. Sunday, Sept. 23. 5:50 (Sun. Morn.). 5:44 (Morn. Eve.). 5:44 (Morn. Eve.). 5:44 (Morn. Eve.). 5:44 (Morn. Eve.).

ARRIVED—WEDNESDAY, Sept. 23. St. Louis, Mo., from New York, Sept. 23. St. Louis, Mo., from New York, Sept. 23. St. Louis, Mo., from New York, Sept. 23. St. Louis, Mo., from New York, Sept. 23.

ARRIVED—THURSDAY, Sept. 24. St. Louis, Mo., from New York, Sept. 24. St. Louis, Mo., from New York, Sept. 24. St. Louis, Mo., from New York, Sept. 24. St. Louis, Mo., from New York, Sept. 24.

DIED. CHAS. E. LAM. Suddenly, at Geneva, Switzerland, on Monday, Sept. 23, 1896, Prof. E. L. Lam, in his 74th year.

Table with multiple columns containing names, locations, and dates of arrivals and deaths.